

MONROE TOWNSHIP, NJ –Held at the Forsgate Country Club here, the event raised funds for Play for P.I.N.K., a grassroots organization founded in 1996. The non-profit donates 100% of the money it raises to The Breast Cancer Research Foundation, which provides critical funding for innovative clinical and genetic research at leading medical centers worldwide.

“Our annual golf outing is always a great opportunity for participants to network and generate new business outside of the office,” says Jean McDonnell of New Millennium Bank in New Brunswick, who co-chaired the event along with Robin Grossman of AT&T of Morristown.

This year, ICREW New Jersey offered bids that gave participants the chance to play a round of golf with one of two guest celebrities at the outing: Dr. Dan Grimaldi, known for his role as twins Philly and Patsy Parisi on the HBO TV series, The Sopranos; and former New York Giant Bart Oates

Sponsors included Milrose Consultants of New York, the Aztec Corp. of Iselin, Zack Painting Company of Fords, Raritan Building Services Corporation of Edison and New Millennium Bank of New Brunswick.
